concluded by December 2, 2022.

~~Expert disclosures, if any, must be made by: December 4, 2022~~

~~Completion of expert discovery: March 14, 2023~~

Plaintiff will seek class certification under FRCP 23 and Defendant will oppose class certification. Plaintiff proposes that his Class certification motion be filed by ~~March 31, 2022~~, October 7, 2022

October 24, 2022
That Defendant shall have until ~~April 1, 2023~~, to file any opposition; and Plaintiff shall have November 4, 2022.

until ~~January 29, 2023~~ to file any reply.

2. The topics of discovery: Discovery will be sought regarding the accessibility of Defendant's website to visually impaired individuals, and any modifications made to the website to make it accessible to the visually impaired. Discovery will also be sought regarding Plaintiff's disability, his alleged attempts to access Defendant's website and purchase products offered on the website, his alleged damages, the Court's jurisdiction over this case and Defendant, and any issues pertaining to class certification. Additionally, Defendant reserves the right to take discovery relating to any of its defenses, including, but not limited to, the issue of the plaintiff's serial filing of ADA website lawsuits.

3. The Parties discussed disclosure and/or discovery of electronically stored information and will continue to meet and confer regarding the form in which such discovery should be produced.

4. The Parties do not anticipate any disputes about claims of privilege or protection at this time. The Parties plan to enter into separate stipulations concerning confidentiality and the claw-back of privileged communications which they shall attempt to negotiate and submit to the Court for its approval.

5. The Parties do not anticipate any changes in the limitations on discovery imposed under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

6. At this time, there are no other orders that the Court should issue under Rule 26(c) or Rule 16(b) and (c).

7. The Parties agree that service of documents by email is effective service and is complete upon emailing.
